Competitions 101, 102, 103 and 104: Australian Young Jumping Horse Championship

Procedure (all ages):

- Arena familiarization will be on Wednesday 2:00pm-4:00pm only NO JUMPING
- Judging of Competition 101,102,103,104 is by a panel of three – with all three judges having equal weighting. Each overall section winner will be ridden in the final by a guest rider as the panel determine the Champion of Champions.
- Horses must have their allocated bridle number, clearly displayed at any time they are away from their allocated stable.
- EA Young Horse Boot Rule as per Jumping Current rules will be monitored please make yourself familiar with these rules prior to the competition.
- Entry includes two gallery (indoor) passes for the event

Scoring:

- All jumping classes are conducted under the Equestrian Australia Jumping Rules.
- Horses will be judged on jumping technique, scope over fences and ride ability between fences i.e. correct number of strides between related distances, being on the bit, changes etc. for a total score out of 100.
- Penalties:
 - Each rail down: 4 points deducted
 - First refusal: 4 points deducted
 - Second refusal: 8 points deducted
 - Third refusal: Elimination from that competition.

As per EA Jumping Rules Young Horse competitions have a minimum speed at which competition should be conducted. Please check the course plans before the start of each competition to confirm the speed .

- Minimum Speed for Young Horse:
 - 4 and 5 YO horse : 325 m per minute minimum
 - 6 YO and above : 350 m per minute minimum

Final:

The number of horses progressing to the Top Ten Final (Saturday) will be limited to the top 10 place getters qualified from Round 1 (Thursday) and Round 2 (Friday). The final winner and placegetters will be determined by the aggregate points over the three rounds (highest score is the winner). In the case of equal points – the placings in the second round will determine the winner.

General Information

Stabling Fees & Bedding

- Stabling is $180.00 for a minimum 3-night stay. Additional nights are charged at $60 per night.
- All stables will be padlocked. Please report to the Stable Manager at the event office upon arrival for access.
- To ensure bedding is delivered before arrival, all bedding orders must be placed by Wednesday 11 March. You may bring your own bedding (shavings only) or purchase bedding from WPNEC on (03) 9741 7672.
- A compulsory cleaning fee of $35 per stable applies

General Stabling Requirements

- All stabling requirements must be booked on the entry form
- Stables open at 13:00 (1pm) on Tuesday 17th
- Stables will be allocated in the following order of preference: 1. Event Sponsors 2. World Cup Jumping and Dressage horses and FEI Children's horses.
- If demand exceeds availability, a waiting list will be created, and competitors will be notified by email as stables become available.
- Competitors must use the stable, yard and campsite allocated by the Organising Committee.
- Horses with known behavioural issues in stables must be declared on the Stable Booking Request at the time of entry. This is essential for risk management and safety.
- Do not use any empty stable as a feed/tack room or to house a horse that has not been booked into that stable.
- Do not enter another competitor's stable or feed/water a horse that is not your own. If you have concerns about another horse, report directly to the stable manager, a steward or the competition office.
- During the event, all stable waste must be taken to the manure pits located at the end of each aisle.
- Only horses officially competing at the event are permitted on the grounds during the competition.

Build Your Own Stables

- For this event only WPNEC has granted a limited amount of jumping horses the option to Build Your Own Stables for all horses except those competing in the World Cup Qualifier event. The price for this is $60 per horse and will be limited in truck numbers. i.e. For Example it may be 5 trucks with 10 horses. All Build Your Own Stables will be located on the K Road side of the grounds. The allocation for Build Your Own Stables will need to be organised with the Jumping Event Secretary prior to entries opening with priority being given to Event Sponsors and Event Volunteers first.

Other Fees

- The administration fee payable per horse is $50.
- The facility fee payable per horse for the event is $60.
- The medical levy payable per horse is $25.

Equestrian Victoria Conditions of Entry

Applicable Equestrian Australia (EA) documents and requirements

1. This Equestrian Victoria (EV) event is governed by the Equestrian Australia (EA) General Regulations, applicable EA Sports Rules and all relevant EA Codes, policies, bylaws, rules and regulations. The EA Sports rules (i.e. the National Rules for each EA sport or discipline) and regulations may be accessed on the EA website "Discipline Rules & Regulations" page via the following link <http://www.equestrian.org.au/rules>. The EA Codes, Policies etc. may be accessed on the EA website "Policies & Bylaws" page via the following link <http://www.equestrian.org.au/policies>.
2. To be eligible to participate in this event you must be a current EV member or current member of an EA state branch. You must also satisfy any further membership or registration requirement (including those for any horse entered) referred to in the General Conditions of Entry for the event (Conditions of Entry) and individual disciplines.
3. The EA National Sports Rules applicable to the event are referred to in the Conditions of Entry.
4. All EA and EV events are subject to the EA Code of Conduct (Code of Conduct). The Code of Conduct can be accessed on the EA website via the following link http://www.equestrian.org.au/sites/default/files/Equestrian_Australia_Code_of_Conduct.pdf
5. It is important that all members understand that the Code of Conduct also covers parents, guardians and spectators in respect of any activity held or sanctioned by EV or an EA state branch. A key aim of the Code of Conduct is to respect the rights of everyone involved, to abide by all EA rules and requirements, to be fair, considerate, honest and professional in all aspects of the sport.
6. EA and EV are committed to the protection and welfare of its members. The EA Member Protection Policy (MPP) can be accessed on its website via the following link <https://www.equestrian.org.au/sites/default/files/NIF%20Member%20Protection%20Policy%20December%202021.pdf>. The EA Social Media Policy, which can be accessed via the following link, should be read in conjunction with the MPP. https://www.equestrian.org.au/sites/default/files/Equestrian_Australia_Social_Media_Policy_February2_018.pdf These are important documents designed to ensure the safe and fair conduct of the event for everyone involved. They should be read, understood and complied with.
7. EA and EV events are also subject to various codes and regulations designed to protect the horse, the welfare of which is paramount (Horse Welfare Provisions). Entrants and Competitors must familiarise themselves with the Horse Welfare Provisions and ensure that they are complied with. These Provisions may be accessed on the EA website via the following link <http://www.equestrian.org.au/policies>.
8. If the event is conducted at Werribee Park National Equestrian Centre (WPNEC) the WPNEC Risk Management Conditions shall apply to the event. The Risk Management Conditions can be accessed via the following link <http://wpnec.com.au/risk-management/>.

Entrants and Competitors bound by EA documents

1. Entrants and Competitors must familiarise themselves with the provisions of the EA documents referred to above (EA documents) and ensure that they comply with them.
2. By submitting an entry for the event you agree to comply with and be bound by the provisions of the EA documents, these Special Conditions and the Conditions of Entry.
3. If you are the parent or guardian of a participant or competitor under the age of 18 years, by submitting an entry for the event you consent to their participation in the event and undertake to the best of your ability to ensure that they understand and comply with the provisions of the EA documents, these Special Conditions and The Conditions of Entry.
4. If there is any conflict in the interpretation between the provisions of the General Regulations and any of the EA documents, these Special Conditions or the Conditions of Entry, the General Regulations will take precedence. If there is any conflict in the interpretation between the provisions of these Special Conditions and the Conditions of Entry, the Special Conditions will take precedence.

Organising Committee

The Organising Committee for the event is referred to in the Conditions of Entry. The Organising Committee may at its absolute discretion, decline to receive any entry or return any fee without being liable for any compensation. Organising Committee's decision in relation to any entry for the event shall be final and binding.

Cancellation and Refund

- EV or the Organising Committee may cancel the event due to catastrophic conditions, disease or force majeure, or for any other reason at its absolute discretion.
- If the event is cancelled after it has commenced there will be no refunds. If the event is cancelled prior to commencement the entrant may be entitled to a proportional refund of the entry fees paid. Any such refund will be determined at the absolute discretion of EV, having regard to the direct or fixed costs for the event.
- Entrants who have provided with their entry an email address and/or mobile phone number will be notified of event cancellation by email and/or text message.
- The refund policy for withdrawal, scratching or change of an entry is set out in the Conditions of Entry.

Release and Indemnity

- You acknowledge that horse riding, working with or being around horses can be dangerous. Horses can act in sudden and unpredictable ways, especially if frightened or hurt. As a consequence, there is a real risk of damage to property, serious injury or even death. In consideration of acceptance of your entry and participation in the event you agree to release and forever discharge EA, EV, their servants and agents and the Organising Committee and each member thereof from all claims, proceedings or demands for any loss or damage howsoever arising from any accident or incident occurring at the event.
- In consideration of acceptance of your entry and participation in the event, you agree to indemnify and keep indemnified EA, EV, their servants and agents and the Organising Committee and each member thereof against all claims, proceedings or demands brought by or on behalf of any participant or competitor named in your entry form for any loss or damage howsoever arising from any accident or incident occurring at the event.

Child Safe Event

All Equestrian Victoria competitions are governed under Victoria's Child Safe Legislation. It is expected of all competitors, parents and spectators to participate under these guidelines. Additionally, EA Child Safeguarding Policy - Equestrian Australia and all our Equestrian Organisations have a zero-tolerance approach to child abuse and neglect in any form.

Equestrian Australia is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of Children in Equestrian by providing a safe and inclusive environment and by ensuring that everyone involved in Equestrian is educated and informed of their responsibilities to protect and look after Children. All Children have the right to feel safe and protected from all forms of abuse, harm, and neglect. Children have the right to take part in sport in a safe, positive, and enjoyable environment.

Equestrian Australia aims to create and maintain an inclusive, child-safe environment that is understood, endorsed, implemented, and adhered to by everyone involved in Equestrian. If you have any questions please reach out to ceo@equestriancvictoria.com.au

FEI CODE OF CONDUCT FOR THE WELFARE OF THE HORSE

The Fédération Equestre Internationale (FEI) requires all those involved in international equestrian sport to adhere to the FEI's Code of Conduct and to acknowledge and accept that at all times the welfare of the horse must be paramount and must never be subordinated to competitive or commercial influences.

1. At all stages during the preparation and training of competition horses, welfare must take precedence over all other demands. This includes good horse management, training methods, farriery and tack, and transportation.
2. Horses and competitors must be fit, competent and in good health before they are allowed to compete. This encompasses medication use, surgical procedures that threaten welfare or safety, pregnancy in mares and the misuse of aids.
3. Events must not prejudice horse welfare. This involves paying careful attention to the competition areas, ground surfaces, weather conditions, stabling, site safety and fitness of the horse for onward travel after the event.
4. Every effort must be made to ensure that horses receive proper attention after they have competed and that they are treated humanely when their competition careers are over. This covers proper veterinary care, competition injuries, euthanasia and retirement.
5. The FEI urges all those involved in equestrian sport to attain the highest possible levels of education in their areas of expertise relevant to the care and management of the competition horse.
